Rosner Brown Touchstone & Keller Announces the Addition of Trent Brown as Staff Accountant

SAN DIEGO, CA (January 24, 2013) – San Diego-based financial firm, Rosner Brown Touchstone & Keller (RBTK), has announced the addition of Trent Brown as Staff Accountant. Brown will be responsible for performing financial statement audits, reviews, and compilations for clients, as well as preparing client tax returns.

Krispin Rosner, Managing Partner at RBTK, said, “We are proud to have Trent Brown take on the role of a Staff Accountant at the firm.” He continued, “Trent brings an excellent skill set to the firm and his experience and dedication will help us better serve our clients.”

“Having interned at RBTK throughout the past year, I have gained comprehensive tax and accounting knowledge,” expressed Brown. “And now as a Staff Accountant I look forward to continuing working in such a supportive and collaborative environment alongside great people.”

Brown graduated from Point Loma Nazarene University with honors. He holds a Bachelor’s degree in Accounting. In his free time, Brown enjoys being physically active and leading a healthy lifestyle. He played Varsity tennis at Rancho Bernardo High School for four years and also played at Point Loma Nazarene. Carmel Mountain-resident, Brown is an avid billiards player and huge sports fan.
